Awesome shot: Bertrand showing his winning picture after the press conference.

PROFESSIONAL photographer Linet Bertrand beat 79 others to emerge as the victor in a photography competition held in conjunction with the International Lion Dance on Stilts Championship.

The 46-year-old Frenchman bagged RM500 for his shot showing the members of a renowned lion dance troupe in the thick of action.

The expressions of the Kun Seng Keng Lion and Dragon Dance Association members from Johor, who were jumping from stilt to stilt, were clearly captured in the shot.

Bertrand said he knew his photograph would be in the top three after checking the LCD screen of his camera.

"I have been waiting for the right moment to get this photograph. I did not bother to snap any further as I know my shot was good enough as it is."

A moment captured: The shot by Lim Lean Eng that won the second prize in the photography competition.

He was speaking to reporters before receiving a certificate and cash from State Tourism Development and Culture Committee chairman Danny Law during a simple presentation ceremony yesterday.

Bertrand said he got to know about the competition after checking out the 'Visit Penang' website through Facebook, adding that Penang is like his second home as he had been here many times.

Coming in second and third respectively were Lim Lean Eng, 38 and Teoh Siang Hooi, 49.

Law said the organising committee received 132 entries from 80 participants.

The competition's judges were Penang Photography Society chairman Looi Toong Hong, Equator Academy of Art's Mac Tan and KDU College's Chew Win Win.
